THE COURTS.

THE MOSER-POLHAMUS & JACKSON CASE-WIT-NESSES TESTIFY THAT THEY MADE FALSE AFFIDAVITS THROUGH FEAR OF ARREST.

The case of Moser agt. Polhamus & Jackson, which has been already reported, was resumed yester day. Charles Mallison, the person who united with Brit ton-whose testimony was published yesterday-in making the affidavit for the plaintiff, and the counter affidavit denying the first affidavit for the defendants was the first witness. He testified that he had been a dector, and subsequently a broker, but had recently relative to the control of making the affidavit for the plaintiff, and the counter affidavit denying the first affidavit for the defendants was the first witness. He testified that he had been :

was sworn to by them, and returned as improperly enti-tied, and they then had a copy made, and swore to it again; witness knows Mr. Kimball, Mr. Potter, and Mr. Carroll; with the first two he had had repeated transac-tions; had had an office of his own till recently; Mr. Kim-ball had had an office; witness had sometimes procured oall had had an office; witness had sometimes procured Custom-House sureties, and been paid for doing so; had sometimes exchanged checks with Britton, not with the metimes exchanged checks with Britton, not with the thers: witness knew of the mortgage sale by Britton to ee for Kimball, but did not know that the mortgage as "bogus," or anything more than that there was tech a transaction. Re-direct—Before witness signed the st affidavit, Mr. Jackson had spoken to him of the incentent now hanging over him, and told him that it ould go as he went on this matter; he understood that r. Jackson had it in his pocket. Re-cross—Mr. Jackson ay not have spoken of this indictment till after the afficient was made; it may have been Baphael who spoke of before then.

Edwin Kimball was the next witness. He had resided Edwin Kimball was the next witness. He had resided 16 years in Brooklyn, and had been in the shipping and commission business for 25 years; he now attends to his father's shipping business; he was a witness in the Supreme Court suit; he signed an affidavit in Mr. Sandford's office on the 2d of June; before he signed this Mallison called at his house and said that Raphael wanted to see him; he called at Raphael's office the next day, and Raphael then told him that Mallison, Potter, and Britton had made counter affidavits to the first affidavit; witness told him the conversation did take place that he (witness) had testified to; he said it must have been some other had testified to; he said it must have been some other man than Jackson, and wished me to make a counter affidavit to that effect; he said Jackson had detectives after us for a week, and had had papers made out to arrest all of us for making the first affidavits; witness then went with Raphael to Sandford's office, and was there introduced to Jackson; before they went there Raphael told him they would be arrested unless the counterfaffidavit were made; at the office Jackson assured him that this conversation never took plac; witness told him he was not mistaken as to the conversation—that certainly took place; he denied that it was between him and Ree; a few minutes after the affidavit was brought out, and witness was told he must sign that or he would be arrested; it was read to him, and he signed it; Jackson told him he had had 22 detectives, 20 met. and 2 women following them; a woman had followed him to church the Sunday before, and sat on the seat behind him; Jackson said he had political influence and money power to protect him from all harm; this was said at Sandford's office; witness believed from Mr. Jackson's statements that the affidavit he asked was true, and that wilness was mistaken in the person; Mr. Sandford expressly told him that the denial of the conversation only referred to Jackson and Ree' to Jackson's identity; witness objected to making the statement, and thus elicited this explanation; witness's previous testimony was correct; the affidavit was left in Sandford's office; subsequently Mr. Jackson's identity; witness objected to making the statement, and thus elicited this explanation; witness was not acquainted with Moser and had haver spoken to him; on the 5th of June witness swore to sked him to say nothing about having made this amwrit to any one and not go near Mr. Ree or Mr. Stoughm; witness was not acquainted with Moser and had ever spoken to him; on the 5th of June witness swore to other affidavit; he did this because be thought the est affidavit denied more than he intended to; he asked
r. Sandford for his first affidavit and it was refused; he tentook the second to Sandford and said that he and Caroll wished to substitute it for the first; Mr. Sandford said would take it and look it over. This was as they were but was unimportant.

George D. Carroll testified that Mr. Jackson spoke to him on Thesday, during the recess of the Court, and said it was a great outrage that he should have made the affil-davit which he gave to Mr. Stoughton; it would be worse for him; witness then testified that Kimbail had told him that the persons who had sworn to the affidavits in favor of plaintiff were in a bad scrape, and induced him to go down to see Mr. Raphael; that he had gone down to see Mr. Raphael; and after a long conversation, which the witness detailed, was induced to go to Mr. Sandford's office; there witness asked to see Mr. Rec's three alloged conflicting affidavits; he was shown them, and Mr. Kimbail's affidavits; he was shown them, and Mr. Kimbail's affidavit; and protested in pretty strong language to Mr. Kimbail as to what he had shown; by that time he began to think there was something in the indictment business, and the sweat began to pour from him; the affidavit was produced, and witness said that he would rather have his right hand struck off, but ultimately, after having one clause struck out, did sign it, beleving himself to be sworn away by the others; witness told Mr. Sandford told him, "Do as you please," witness on that supposed there was no doubt as to his being arrested, and walked life the private office and signed it and swore to it; he asked Mr. Sandford what relation that placed him in as to perjury. Mr. Sandford said he was not a criminal lawyer, and could give him no security in the matter; outside of the office Mr. Raphael enjoined secrecy on witness, and promised him for Mr. Jackson, if any trouble arose, security and counsel, and that not a hair of hishead should be harmed; witness proposed to Mr. Raphael to go to Mr. Jackson, and Raphael enjoined secrecy on witness, each promised him for Mr. Jackson, if any trouble arose, security and counsel, and that not a hair of hishead should be harmed; witness proposed to Mr. Raphael to go to Mr. Jackson, and Raphael advised him not to: the statement in that affidavit was drawn by Ree, and the other statements in that affidavit was drawn by Ree, and the other statements in that affidavit was drawn by Ree, and then drew his second affidavit in s lavit which he gave to Mr. Stoughton; it would be worse for him; witness then testified that Kimball had told him that the persons who had sworn to the affidavits in favor witness now as Jackson's testimony that he had had no such swore was Jackson's testimony that he had had no such conversation, but that he still believes it was Jackson; this he ascribes to Mr. Raphael's having impressed on his mind that a case must be made against Ree; witness ex-plained another paragraph by saying that Mr. Ree had one day said to him that it mattered little whether Jack-son had been the person who had the conversation, since the referce had decided that it was not, and, on being pressed by witness, had said, "It was not Mr. Jackson, it was Andy Johnson," he made repeated efforts to get was Andy Johnson:" he made repeated efforts to get back his affidavit from Mr. Sandford, Judge Porter, and Mr. Jackson. The cross-examination was postponed till this morning at 92 o'clock.

The disbursements of the Sub-Treasury on account of interest were $2,500,000; the total payments for three days amount to $8,000,000. The steamer Russia took out to-day $550,000 of specie.

Government bonds opened dull, with sales of the six per cents of 1881 at 1131; ex coupon 5-20s of 1862 sold at 113; 5-20s of '65 and '67 sold at 1691. Coupon 10-40s were firm at 1072. There were small sales of 7.30s at 1091 @ 110. The market was heavy throughout the day, and at the last Board there was a strong pressure to sell, and a decline of 1@1 per cent was hade on the entire list. The heaviest decline was made on the 5-20s, '07, and 7.30 notes. The desire shown by Members of Congress to place the national eredit on a par with Austria and Turkey is having its effect, and no rumor is too wild for operators on the street to believe. The immediate cause of the decline was a report that the Committee of Ways and Means would report the bill (taxing all the six per cent bonds ten per cent on their interest) to the House to-morrow, Tennessee bonds were lower, ex coupons selling at 71. forth Carolina 6 per cents made a sharp reaction vancing 24 per cent, and the new 6 per cents 3 per cent. Virginias were steady at 57 for the ex coupons, and 56 for new bonds. Missouri 6 per cents were steady at 914. ex July coupon. Rallway mortgag strong. Erie 1sts, 103; 2d, 58. Chicago, Rock Island, and Pacific 7s sold at 96 ex coupon. Chicago and Alton 1sts, 106. Western Union Telegraph was steady. Pacific Mail was higher, selling at 100%. Express stocks were steady. The transactions in railway shares were small at the Board, but prices were firm; the bulk of the dealing is now done in the Long Room, and after the call there was an active demand for the leading shares at improved rates. Ene sold at 70; Michigan Southern 234, Cleveland and Pittsburgh 891, Rock Island 1051, Fort Wayne 1021, ex. dividend of 24 per cent. North-Western common sold at 734, and the preferred 79. At the Second Board there was a sharp rally in Tennessce 6s; ex conpons sold at 71; new bonds sold at 71, closing 70 bid. Virginias, North Carolinas, and Missouri 6 per cents were all stronger.
The general share market was without change. Cleveland and Pittsburgh sold at 88‡, ex. dividend of 2 per cent. Illinois Central sold at 158. North-Western shares continued strong at 732 for the common, and 794 for the preferred stock. Rock Island was active advancing to 105). At the close the market was weak on New-York Centrals. Erie, and Michigan Southerns; strong on Reading, the North-Western shares, and Rock Island. The balance of the market was steady. North Carolina 6 per cents sold at 75, an advance for the day of 5 per cent. Tennessees closed firm: 80 was bid for the overdue bonds of May, 1868. Government bonds close dull and weak at quotations:

And the following for Railroad bonds:

Money is easy at 3@5 per cent on call. The payment of interest has made some little activity by the changing of loans, but to-day no large amounts can be placed at better than 4 per cent. The flurry noticed in market yesterday was caused entirely from this cause, and the indications now are that the week will close with rates at 2@4 per cent on call. Sterling Exchange is firm, with sales by leading bankers at 1102 for 60-day bills, and 1102 for signt. The default of the State of Tennessee upon the interest due July 1 has caused a great deal of conversation in Wall-st. not at all complimentary to the honor of that State, which has been sacrificed by her own citizens for dishonest personal gain. Of the interest $200,000 was on deposit at the Fourth National Bank, an equal sum was in the hands of the agents of the railroads ready to be transfered to the bank, and this institution had agreed to lend the State at par the amount necessary to meet the July coupons in full. In this state of affairs, when the credit of Tennessse was in position where its bonds were in demand for investment, and the credit of all borrow ers and traders in the State was steadily advancing with the markets of New-York, legal proceedings were taken, which made it necessary for Gov. Brownlow and the Treasurer to advise the New York agent of the State to withhold the interest This disaster to the State credit, instead of being the subject of regret to prominent citizens of the State temporarily here, has been the signal for the expression of their gratification and of prediction of still lower rates for the bonds. The parties thus jubilant on the misfortunes of their State are largely identified with its railroads, and have probably been interested in speculations against the credit of the State. When the Legisla ture meets, short work will be made of this question The bondholders need have no fear of the result of the action of the Legislature, and should not sell their bonds in a panic, created wholly to buy bonds cheap. The Fourth National Bank has in this affair shown a liberal policy toward Tennessee, and has done all that could have been expected of a financial

Mr. Harwood, President of the Hide and Leather National Bank of Boston, says that the bank has lost nothing by loans, and has earned all the dividends declared: that the late Cashier, who was formerly bookkeeper, continued to elude the vigilance of officers of the bank by false entries and forged balances by forging exhibits of balances purporting to exist between them and banks with which accounts were kept, and by falsifying accounts of individual depositors. Under advice of his counsel on the pending trial of the accused, he forbears giving details, but adds that the Directors owned 1,156 shares of stock when suspicion first fell upon the Cashier, and that they have not sold a single share since. The loss is placed at $575,000. The question of the State taking and transferring the Concord Railroad to a new corporation was indefinitely postponed by action of the New-Hampshire House of Representatives, this morning. The same body, this morning, indefinitely postponed the question of a charter for the Lake Shore Railroad. A charter was granted to the Robbins Wood-Preserv ing Co.; capital, $300,000.

The shipments of Pittston coal for the week ending June 27, 1868, were 28,872 tuns, making, thus far this year, 414,928 tuns, or an increase of 48,851 tuns over the amount to same date last year. The earnings of the Chicago & Alton Railroad for
